HELLO EVERYONE,

ONCE AGAIN IT’S ALMOST CHRISTMAS, and plans are being made for “Christmas in Oglala” here on Pine Ridge Indian Reservation. I (Kathy) apologize for not getting this newsletter out sooner. Terry and I are in Ohio so I can be treated for some health issues. Sadly we will not be there this year to help with the celebration. But the rest of the team in Oglala is working together to organize an amazing party for Saturday, December 7, 2019. They are expecting a large crowd to join them in celebration of the birth of our Wonderful Savior. As in the past, this is a meaningful opportunity for the children and adults to invite their families as well as the rest of the community to hear about and to receive the greatest gift ever given to man, JESUS.

PLEASE PRAYERFULLY CONSIDER how God would have you help us reach the people of Oglala for Jesus by supporting this outreach. Most importantly, please pray for people to receive Christ and for changed lives. You can also help us have an eternal impact on these families as well as the community of Oglala by giving to this worthy cause. No gift is too small and all gifts are greatly appreciated. Our biggest need and always the hardest to ask for is money. Your monetary donations are crucial to the success of this mission outreach.

THERE HAVE BEEN CHANGES MADE this year. For once, we will not be able to do Angel Kids. Another change is the day; instead of on Sunday morning, the program will now be on a Saturday afternoon. The rest of the event will remain about the same. The Christmas program and service will be followed by dinner and a special gift for each person attending. The Rec team will be putting together about 425 gift bags for elderly men and women, teens and adult men and women, girls and boys age 4-11, and the babies. We want to be certain no one goes home without a gift. Please prayerfully consider how God would have you help ensure no one is disappointed this blessed holiday season.

IF YOU ARE SENDING A CHECK, please designate your donation to the “Christmas Celebration” on the memo line.
